

Our Commerce with Canada.

DRAFT OF A NEW RECIPROcity TREATY. At the request of Secretary McCulloch, Mr. E. H. Derby has prepared a new draft of a new Reciprocity Treaty, which was laid before Congress on Monday. Its provisions are as follows:— "To extend the present treaty for the further term of one year from the 17th of March next, on the condition that Canada shall repeal all the duties and taxes on salt, cars, locomotives, vehicles of all kinds, machinery, furniture, tools, implements, soap, starch, boots, shoes, leather, horse shoes and horse shoe nails, harness, tacks, bridle, watches, music and musical instruments, clocks, tin and wood ware, mangle delaines, coarse shawls, satinetts, and sheetings and shirtings worth less than one dollar a pound, and to raise the internal tax and duty on spirits to at least seventy-five cents per gallon wine measure, and to discontinue free ports on Lakes Huron and Superior. The treaty for extension shall also provide that the United States may impose any internal taxes on the productions of the provinces, which they levy upon their own products of the same kind. The President is authorized to appoint two commissioners or envoys to negotiate a treaty with the United Kingdom and the provinces, either jointly or severally, to regulate the commerce and navigation between the respective territories and people of said provinces and the United States, on terms reciprocal beneficial. It is made the duty of the commissioners to provide, if possible, for the permanent security of the fisheries of the United States, to secure the free interchange of the products of art and manufacture, as well as the products of the forest and agriculture and other products between the provinces and the United States; to secure, if possible, the discontinuance of any free ports, the President is authorized to negotiate a treaty with the United Kingdom and the provinces, and the removal of all charges for lights and compulsory pilotage, and all discriminating tolls and duties, and for improved navigation between Lake Michigan and the Mississippi, around the Falls of Niagara, and between Lake Ontario, Montreal, and Lake Champlain. All articles produced in any of the provinces, which under the provisions of the treaty for extension, if admitted, shall be wholly admitted into Canada from the United States, shall during the year of extension be freely admitted to the United States from Canada, if produced in that country."

—GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN was asked two or three days ago by a committee of workmen, of Chicago, if he could not do something to talk to them about the questions of free trade and protection, whereupon George wrote the following characteristic reply, which we commend to the attention of Free-Traders:— "I know Henry Clay and John C. Calhoun—Gentlemen—Yes, free trade and protection are played out. The words to use now are, England or America? All those in favor of England say so. Sincerely, GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN."

—One of the anecdotes connected with the recent visit of the King and Queen of Portugal to Paris is as follows:—The King and Queen expressed a wish to admire M. Perre's collection of flowers. The latter accordingly presented himself at the pavilion de Marsan, and was at once received. As he handed a magnificent necklace of black pearls and diamonds to Queen Pia, it slipped from her hand and fell on the ground. The King stopped to pick it up, when Dom Luiz prevented him by remarking that the etiquette of the Portuguese Court gave the King or Queen alone the privilege of raising whatever fell at their feet. Then handling the ornament to his wife, he said, "What the Queen has touched is hers."
